

March, 2008

CATONSVILLE HOMES ANNOUNCES NEW UPSCALE COMMUNITY IN HOWARD COUNTY

Catonsville Homes continues to expand its presence in western Howard County, providing upscale living with the addition of its latest community, The Estates at Cloverfield. With homebuyers across the region eager to establish new roots in Howard County, homebuyers are encouraged to secure a homesite now. Steve Edmondson, Vice President and Director of Marketing, announced “We take pride in selecting only the finest locations for our communities. Located in the heart of central Maryland with easy access to all major highways and a renowned school district, we are confident that homeowners will choose a new home at Cloverfield.”

National travel stories in the New York Times, Southern Living and the Washington Post are making Howard County a must see destination nestled between Baltimore and Washington, D.C. Additionally, Howard County has received national recognition as a great place to like, work, and play by Money magazine, ranking the area # 4 on its America’s Best Places to Live 2006 list.

With so much buzz, Catonsville Homes anticipates great interest in the 1+ acre homesites at Cloverfield. The Estates at Cloverfield opened in February of 2008. Situated on the western outskirts of Howard County, an ideal home base where homeowners can experience relaxation, action and adventure, or a bit of both. Residents will enjoy the amenities of Columbia Mall, which offers a multitude of trendy shops, theme restaurants and a state-of-the-art movie theatre. Merriweather Post Pavilion welcomes well known artists to the area, while kid-friendly farms offer families the chance to pick their own produce. The area also features well-known golf courses and spas. This exclusive community offers 19 unique acre plus home sites. At The Estates at Cloverfield homebuyers can choose from one of three newly introduced floor plans or among some of our award winning favorites. Interior dimensions range from 3,800 to 5,500 square feet.

Catonsville Homes is an award-winning homebuilder known for outstanding value and superior craftsmanship. Since 1984, attention to detail and commitment to customers’ satisfaction have helped establish Catonsville’s reputation for transforming customers’ dreams into distinctive homes. Priced from the mid 900’s, Catonsville invites you to secure a homesite at The Estates at Cloverfield.